

To remove the embleme, pry evenly near the pins shown in Fig. 95 until the entire piece is free.

Fig. 95

Fig. 96 shows the spring clip which is spot welded to the inside of the body panel.

It is advisable to use a new plate when repainting the car since it is practically impossible to remove the old one in perfect condition. This small item is usually the only evidence of an otherwise perfect repair job.

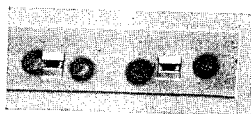

Fig. 96

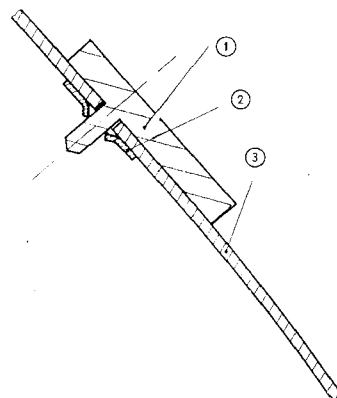

Fig. 97

- ① Name plate
- ② Spring clip
- ③ Body panel